

Welcome to the Saint Paul Police Department Professional Development Institute. We are dedicated to providing quality, affordable training to law enforcement officers and other professionals. SPPD has over fifty years of experience of delivering the finest quality training available. It is our hope that your department will select SPPPDI to help you meet your ever changing needs.

The Saint Paul Police Department recognizes that police training needs are constantly changing. PDI is also available to “train on request” to help fill your unique needs. We have an outdoor range available that is suitable to the many challenging needs of law enforcement.

Since courses fill quickly once announced early registration is suggested. However, we do maintain a stand-by list in the case of cancellations. Agencies will be billed for the course if less than seven days notice is given on cancellations.

The Saint Paul Police Department looks forward to serving your needs in 2011. Please feel free to contact the Saint Paul Police Training Unit at (651) 266-5555 to request customized training.

Please check out the website: <http://www.stpaul.gov/index.aspx?NID=2949> for added classes.

Sincerely,

Chief Thomas E. Smith

Cost: $135.00

The Saint Paul Police Professional Development Institute (PDI) is sponsoring a 1-day course in DIGITAL FORENSIC IMAGING FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT.

This course is designed for street officers, investigators and prosecuting attorneys, who deal with photographic evidence on a regular basis. The majority of the class will deal with the use of 35 mm digital SLR cameras and lenses. Capturing excellent photographic evidence is a perishable skill that should be updated frequently. Answering questions in court about your photographs and how they were taken is another topic that will be covered in this course. Storage of digital files will also be discussed. Within the course there will be training on point and shoot digital cameras. For the investigator we will work on capturing additional photos during the investigation with less than optimal camera equipment. Each student is required to have with them the department camera that they use, the manual for that camera and the department policies on photographic evidence. There will be practical exercises during this course. The student is encouraged to bring up any problems that they might have had with forensic imaging in the past.

Larry J. Nevin: is a retired SPPD Officer with 29 plus years of service. He is a master level evidence technician and was the Former Director of SPPD'S Audio Video Services Unit. His photographic experience is not limited to just Police Work. He is the owner of Heritage Prints Studios, a full service photographic and video studio that has been viable for over 30 years.

Instructor: Charles C. Hemp (Retired)

Post: 40

Cost: $485.00 (Must register first and then pay C. Hemp by Feb 1, 2011 to Attend)

The Saint Paul Police Professional Development Institute (PDI) is sponsoring a 5-day course in BASIC DEATH AND HOMICIDE INVESTIGATION.

The investigation of death is the most important responsibility a police agency can undertake. This 40 hour course will prepare the student to properly investigate all death cases. The focus will be on homicide investigation. The areas specifically covered will include: The police role in the investigation of natural and accidental death cases; The proper response of uniform officers; Control and protections of the crime scene; DNA; Suicide investigation; Working with the Medical Examiner; Examination of the body; The time of death window; Blunt force trauma; Sharp force trauma; Gunshot wounds; Asphyxia deaths; Autoerotic deaths; Crime scene analysis; Forensics and physical evidence; Case preparation and Courtroom testimony; Class group case work in lieu of a final exam.

Chuck Hemp began his police career with the City of Oakland Park Public Safety Department in South Florida, now District #12 Broward County Sheriffs Department. He served from 1962 until he retired in 1989, receiving 17 decorations for outstanding work in the field and 3 Mayor's citations for valor. His assignments varied from Patrol, Narcotics, Vice, the Intelligence Unit, Organized Crime Unit, and 12 years as a Lieutenant in the Major Case Squad. In 1989, Mr. Hemp received and accepted a lateral transfer as a Lieutenant with the State of New Hampshire Police Standards and Training Council and was later promoted to Captain. His duties involved teaching in the police academy and in-service training involving certified courses in Death Investigation, Internal Affairs Investigations and Crime Scene-related topics. He also served as the State's compliance investigator involving police officer decertification issues. He remained with the State of New Hampshire until 2001, when he retired and returned to Florida. Mr. Hemp has a Bachelor of Science Degree in Police Administration from Nova University. He attended, and was Class President, of the 76th Session of the University of Louisville Southern Police Institute in 1986. Mr. Hemp has lectured and taught throughout the country as an expert in death investigations. In addition to being an adjunct instructor for SPI, he also teaches for IPTM and Forensic Consultants of New England. He is an IAI Board Certified Senior Crime Scene Analyst, a licensed Scuba Instructor, and a charter boat captain, licensed by the US Coast Guard.

Tactical Search and Seizure

Date: February 10, 2011

Location: St. Paul Police Department Headquarters
4th Floor Classroom
367 Grove Street
Saint Paul, MN 55101

Time: 0800-1600

Instructor: Commander Neil Nelson-SPPD (Retired)

POST: 7 Credits

Cost: $135.00

The Saint Paul Police Professional Development Institute (PDI) is sponsoring a 1-day course in TACTICAL SEARCH AND SEIZURE.

This is a state-of-the-art workshop that presents complex search and seizure information in a clear, concise format. The course, which is geared toward experienced law enforcement professionals, provides an investigative edge in targeting the illegal urban arsenal and crime-breeding drug trade at the criminals' weak points (e.g., bus stops, hotels/motels, cars).

This course addresses the topics of interdiction, the search & seizure continuum, the elements of voluntary contact, tactical "stop and frisk," arrest and search principles, the ethics involved in the use of police power, and the impact of every officer's actions on community perception. The benefits of this course include reduced Internal Affairs complaints, better public relations, increased officer safety, better conviction results, fewer harassment and physical abuse lawsuits against officers and better preparation for civil lawsuits against law enforcement departments.

Working, Controlling and Managing Major Cases

Date: February 14-16, 2011

Location St. Paul Police Department
Western District Community Room
389 N. Hamline Avenue
Saint Paul, MN 55104

Time: 0800-1600

Instructor: Charles C. Hemp (Retired)

POST: 22 Credits

Cost: $285.00 (Must register first and then pay C. Hemp by Feb 1, 2011 to Attend)

The Saint Paul Police Professional Development Institute (PDI) is sponsoring a 3-day course in WORKING, CONTROLLING AND MANAGING MAJOR CASES.

This course is intended for Supervisors or officers who are in charge of administrative policies or officers leading investigations deemed by circumstances to be major in nature such as; Homicide, Police involved shootings, and Cases that are likely to bring media attention to the department and Cases that involve politicians might be considered as examples. The O.J. Simpson and the Jon Benet' Ramsey case (to name only two) should cue investigators to re-examine their investigative organizational approach to the so called "Major Cases". This course will examine the decisions that agencies must make before undertaking a major case and the mistakes often made at the onset of these investigations. These cases demand proper protocol and attention to the following areas: Crime scene entry, protection and control, Proper coordination of the investigation, Trained and experienced investigators backed by established technique and protocol, Attention to post arrest issues and trial preparation.

Chuck Hemp began his police career with the City of Oakland Park Public Safety Department in South Florida, now District #12 Broward County Sheriffs Department. He served from 1962 until he retired in 1989, receiving 17 decorations for outstanding work in the field and 3 Mayor's citations for valor. His assignments varied from Patrol, Narcotics, Vice, the Intelligence Unit, Organized Crime Unit, and 12 years as a Lieutenant in the Major Case Squad. In 1989, Mr. Hemp received and accepted a lateral transfer as a Lieutenant with the State of New Hampshire Police Standards and Training Council and was later promoted to Captain. His duties involved teaching in the police academy and in-service training involving certified courses in Death Investigation, Internal Affairs Investigations and Crime Scene-related topics. He also served as the State's compliance investigator involving police officer decertification issues. He remained with the State of New Hampshire until 2001, when he retired and returned to Florida. Mr. Hemp has a Bachelor of Science Degree in Police Administration from Nova University. He attended, and was Class President, of the 76th Session of the University of Louisville Southern Police Institute in 1986. Mr. Hemp has lectured and taught throughout the country as an expert in death investigations. In addition to being an adjunct instructor for SPI, he also teaches for IPTM and Forensic Consultants of New England. He is an IAI Board Certified Senior Crime Scene Analyst, a licensed Scuba Instructor, and a charter boat captain, licensed by the US Coast Guard.

Saint Paul, MN 55101

Time: 0830-1630

Instructors: Michael Rozin - Rozin Security Consulting

POST: 14

Cost: $135.00

The Saint Paul Police Professional Development Institute (PDI) is sponsoring a 2-day course in KRAV MAGA DEFENSE TACTICS SYSTEM FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT.

This is a system intended for use by Military, Security and Law Enforcement Special Operations Units. Krav Maga directly translates to “Contact Combat” and is an official self-defense and close-quarter combat system of Israeli Defense Force (IDF) and Israeli security apparatus. Krav Maga has been taught to hundreds of Law-Enforcement agencies and thousands of civilians in United States.

Krav Maga is a modern, reality based method of training. The Krav Maga defensive tactics training is characterized by a logical & progressive approach to learning that results in a highly effective, easy to learn, natural and practical method of hand to hand combat for real life violent encounters.

Michael Rozin is a well known Krav Maga instructor amongst the Law Enforcement community in the Twin Cities. He served as a Sergeant in a specialized infantry unit in the Israeli Defense Forces. During his deployment Michael participated in operations at the West Bank, Syrian and Lebanon border. After his military service he joined the Israeli Airport Authority where he worked as a security agent for Ben-Gurion International Airport in Tel Aviv under the supervision of the Israeli Security Agency, (Shin Bet). Part of Michael’s training at Ben Gurion Airport included advanced Krav Maga training.

Michael Rozin has taught a number of classes to Security, local Law Enforcement and Federal Agencies. Michael is a graduate of the Institute of Counter-Terrorism in the Interdisciplinary Center in Hertzliya, Israel where he attended a Masters Level Executive Counter-Terrorism Studies program. He is fluent in Russian, Bulgarian, Hebrew and English.

Courtroom Testimony Techniques “Success Instead of Survival”

Date: March 3-4, 2011

Location: St. Paul Police Department
Western District Community Room
389 N. Hamline Avenue
Saint Paul, MN 55104

Time: 0800-1600

Instructor: Ron Smith and Associates

POST: 16

Cost: $300.00

The Saint Paul Police Professional Development Institute (PDI) is co-sponsoring with Ron Smith and Associates a 2-day course in COURTROOM TESTIMONY TECHNIQUES – SUCCESS INSTEAD OF SURVIVAL.

This two day seminar is specifically designed to aid the student in understanding and accepting the anxiety of testifying, then taking that concern and channeling it in a positive direction to make them a better witness. Most law enforcement officers, investigators and forensic specialists receive little formal training on proper methods of providing testimony. That presents a significant problem because jury members may assume you are properly trained and that you testify on a regular basis. For most criminal justice witnesses, testifying in court is not a regular part of their schedule and this lack of experience leads to a natural feeling of anxiety when called upon to testify. You will learn that “Fear is Good” because when you are afraid you are also very alert to what is happening around you. Once you learn to utilize and channel this feeling you can make great strides in becoming the witness you want to be and the kind of witness that the jury expects. This seminar is designed to help you accomplish this goal.

This training seminar has been approved for 16 hours of Continuing Education Credit required for I.A.I. Certification and Re-certification. Certificates of attendance, authorized by the International Association for Identification, will be awarded to each student successfully completing the seminar. Class attire is business casual.

Connecting with an Audience Highly Resistant or Hostile Towards Law Enforcement

Date: March 17-18, 2011

Location: St. Paul Police Department
Western District Community Room
389 N. Hamline Avenue
Saint Paul, MN 55104

Time: 0830-1630

Instructor: Corporal Malcolm “Jerry” Williams-Oakland Housing Authority

POST: 14 Credits

Cost: $195.00

The Saint Paul Police Professional Development Institute (PDI) is sponsoring a 2-day course on CONNECTING WITH AN AUDIENCE HIGHLY RESISTANT OR HOSTILE TOWARDS LAW ENFORCEMENT.

This course is designed to assist law enforcement officers of all ranks, including prosecutors, in connecting with populations that have little or no trust in the justice system. This course is based on the actual experiences of Corporal Malcolm “Jerry” Williams of the Oakland, CA Housing Authority. Corporal Williams has repeatedly found practical ways to “defy” the norm and connect with populations that are hostile and suspicious of law enforcement.

Corporal Williams will address dealing with generational gang families, gang youth and parents, families that have been involved in generational violence and crime. Participants will learn how to establish relationships in which they can connect with this audience and gain permission to provide direction and input. This way of “connecting” will not in any way “condone” their behavior or membership in illegal organizations.

Corporal Malcolm “Jerry” Williams has been with the Oakland Housing Authority for 25 years. He has served the police department in many capacities including as an undercover narcotics officer. He helped establish a “Community Policing” program in Lockwood-Coliseum Gardens Housing Projects. Since then, he has received numerous awards for his work with community and youth. In 1997, he was awarded the California Peace Prize for his “...work to prevent violence in the community...” He was nationally recognized by Attorney General Janet Reno and President Clinton for this work.

Healthy Relationships for Modern Law Enforcement

Date: March 28-29, 2011

Location: St. Paul Police Department
Western District Community Room
389 N. Hamline Avenue
Saint Paul, MN 55104

Time: 0800-1600

Instructor: George Pransky, Ph.D., LMFT

POST: 14

Cost: $235.00 each or
$300.00 per couple

The Saint Paul Police Professional Development Institute (PDI) is sponsoring a 2-day course in HEALTHY RELATIONSHIPS FOR MODERN LAW ENFORCEMENT.

This course is intended for LE and their “other halves”. In law enforcement, relationships are the foundation of home and work. When these relationships are healthy and require less emergency maintenance individuals enjoy life more - play and work with greater satisfaction. Even the normal, everyday stresses and strains of today’s living can take a toll on your relationships. Add to the mix the law enforcement components of Critical Incidents and shift work and you may have a recipe for disaster. This workshop will show you how to keep your heads above water and how to revive relationships if they have gone underwater.

In this seminar participants will learn;

- How to maintain healthy relationships when exposed to Critical Incidents,
- How to be supportive to yourself and those you love as the circumstances in life shift dramatically,
- How to have productive conversations on difficult subjects (work, finances, kids, etc),
- How to turn around a negative relationship dynamic,
- How to keep your attitude positive even in the face of “bad” behavior,
- How to maintain warmth and goodwill with your partner during difficult times,
- How to maintain your identity while in love with your partner.

George Pransky, PhD, LMFT, is a nationally-recognized speaker on interpersonal matters in the workplace. He has addressed a wide range of audiences on this subject, which include The Healthcare Forum Summit, YPO, YEO, Defense Acquisition University, Association of American Medical Colleges, and The American Psychological Association. The diversity of Dr. Pransky’s clientele is attributed to his unique understanding of human functioning and interaction, the application of which has significant impact on productivity and interpersonal relationships. The author of The Relationship Handbook, Dr. Pransky received his undergraduate degree from Middlebury College, Vermont, and his Ph.D. from Columbia Pacific University, California. He is a marriage and family therapist licensed in the state of Washington.

The Saint Paul Police Professional Development Institute (PDI) is sponsoring a 2-day course in EFFECTIVE LEADERSHIP FOR MANAGERS AND SUPERVISORS “DOING MORE WITH LESS”.

The days when leadership involved nothing more than giving out clear messages and then following up are long gone. Leadership in law enforcement today presents formidable morale challenges-higher expectation for less work hours, a disheartened workforce, feelings of entitlement, to name a few. This program intends to provide the advanced skill sets demanded by today's leadership.

This course will include;

- Pulling Employees out of Negative States of Mind
- Improving Morale in the Work Place
- Assessing and Adapting Systematic Sources of Employee Discontent
- Keeping your Balance under Stressful Conditions
- Resolving Difficult Issues without getting Adversarial
- Dispensing Balanced Discipline
- Connecting with Employees While Providing Critical Feedback
- Engaging Employees in Solving their own Problems

POST: 40

Cost: $385.00

The Saint Paul Police Professional Development Institute (PDI) is sponsoring a 5-day intensive course in COUNTER-TERRORISM TACTICS and AWARENESS FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT.

This course is intended for law enforcement officers tasked with performing protective/security functions within their jurisdictions, such as; schools, event centers, public buildings, federal, state and local government buildings, etc. It will increase one's understanding and awareness of terrorism as a tactic. This course will enable a LE Officer to detect behavior that can indicate immediate or not immediate intentions to execute a terrorist attack. Most importantly this training will give participants an effective tool to prevent an attack, thus enhancing agencies' proactive capabilities. This course will significantly increase the student's awareness and understanding of the terrorism threat and terrorist methods of operations. Furthermore, this program will enable participants to understand, retain and be proficient in Behavior Detection and Security Interviewing techniques. Participants will engage in class lectures, workshops and a number of field exercises. In addition, participants will learn how to identify real and fraudulent forms of identification and how to utilize a number of different ID forms in Security Interviews. At the end of the course participants will receive suggested Standard Operations Protocol for dealing with Suspicious People, Items and Vehicles.

Michael Rozin's career has focused on counter-terrorism interventions for over 10 years. After serving as a Sergeant in a specialized infantry unit in the Israeli Defense Forces, Michael joined the Israeli Airport Authority where he worked as a security agent for Ben-Gurion International Airport in Tel Aviv under the supervision of the Israeli Security Agency, (Shin Bet). Throughout his employment with the ISA, Michael received several Outstanding Performance Awards. Michael moved to the United States from Israel in 2005 and since then has been employed by Mall of America (MOA) as Special Operations Security Captain to enhance the counter-terrorism capabilities of MOA Security Department. In this capacity Michael has developed, implemented and managed a behavior detection unit and a variety of other innovative security programs focused on mitigating the threat of terrorism. These programs have achieved results with national and international magnitude. In 2008 the security program Michael created for Mall of America was presented to the U.S. House of Representatives' Committee on Homeland Security as a model for security in the public sector. Michael is a graduate of the Institute of Counter-Terrorism in the Interdisciplinary Center in Hertzliya, Israel, where he attended a Masters Level Executive Counter-Terrorism Studies program. Homicide Scene Management for Patrol

Date: April 21, 2011 or October 6, 2011

Location: St. Paul Police Department
Western District Community Room
389 N. Hamline Avenue
Saint Paul, MN 55104

Time: 0800-1600

Instructors: Investigator David Newman. (Retired)

POST: 7 Credits

Cost: $125.00

The Saint Paul Police Professional Development Institute (PDI) is sponsoring a 1-day course on HOMICIDE SCENE MANAGEMENT FOR PATROL.

The course objective is to train the patrol officer or first responder how to handle and approach a homicide or violent crime scene prior to the arrival of scene investigators. Many patrol officers lack the training and basic understanding of managing the scene of a homicide and avoiding too much traffic and cross contamination, while at the same time establishing safe boundaries that will encompass all of the physical evidence. Crime scene management begins with the arrival of the first officer on scene and continues on through both scene and homicide investigators. Most important and often overlooked are the responsibilities of patrol. Know what to do before critical errors and possibly the loss of vital evidence takes place. It's always been a simple rule in homicide investigation; how the initial scene is handled by patrol has a profound effect on the entire investigation.

This one day class is designed to benefit those in patrol so they may understand what role they play not only in the initial securing of a homicide scene, but also provides them with a good understanding of physical evidence recognition, preservation and documentation. Because patrol officers cannot often times have days off for training resulting from manpower restrictions, this course has been condensed to 8 hours to make it easier for them to attend. The instructor for this course is Inv. David Newman (Ret.) from the Norfolk Police Department in Virginia.

To register go to: https://www.trainingregistration.org/register.php?id=414&c_id=12. If you have any questions, please call the Saint Paul Police Department Training Unit at (651) 266-5555 or email: pdi@ci.stpaul.mn.us.

Collection, Documentation & Preservation of Footwear & Tire Track Impression Evidence

Date: April 26-29, 2011

Location: St. Paul Police Department
Western District Community Room
389 N. Hamline Avenue
Saint Paul, MN 55104

Time: 0800-1600

Instructor: Ron Smith and Associates

POST: 32

Cost: $500.00

The Saint Paul Police Professional Development Institute (PDI) is co-sponsoring with Ron Smith and Associates a 4-day course in COLLECTION, DOCUMENTATION, & PRESERVATION OF FOOTWEAR & TIRE TRACK IMPRESSIONA EVIDENCE.

Have you ever wondered; “WHAT IS THE MOST OFTEN OVERLOOKED TYPE OF EVIDENCE” in a crime scene? Have you ever seen a shoeprint at a crime scene and not collected it “BECAUSE YOU DIDN’T HAVE THE TOOLS OR THE TRAINING?” Has the Crime Laboratory ever advised you that your shoeprint or tire print evidence was not collected in a manner satisfactory for examination? Do you know how to collect known tire track exemplars from your SUSPECT’S vehicle? Do you know the difference between two dimensional and three dimensional impressions and how to adequately document them using photography?

In this course, rather than enter the next crime scene and trample the very footsteps of the suspect, the student will learn how to do more than carefully step around these impressions. Instead, with confidence, the student will be able to locate, document, collect and properly preserve this valuable form of impression evidence. Through HANDS-ON exercises, the student will gain a working knowledge of the proper photographic documentation techniques required to preserve the impression evidence for future comparison and identification. Once photographed, the evidence will need to be properly casted or lifted. During the HANDS-ON portion of this training, these techniques will be demonstrated and then practiced by each student. The student will understand the value of collecting information from all four tires left behind at a crime scene, as well as, learn the correct methods for collecting known tire exemplars.

This training seminar has been approved for 32 hours of Continuing Education Credit required for I.A.I. Certification and Re-certification. Certificates of attendance, authorized by the International Association for Identification, will be awarded to each student successfully completing the seminar. Class attire is business casual.

The Essence of Effective Parenting

Location St. Paul Police Department
Western District Community Room
389 N. Hamline Avenue
Saint Paul, MN 55104

Time: 0900-1700

Instructor: Jack Pransky, Ph.D.

POST: 14 Credits

Cost: $ 235.00 each or
$ 300.00 per couple

The Saint Paul Police Professional Development Institute (PDI) is sponsoring a 2-day course in THE ESSENCE OF EFFECTIVE PARENTING.

In law enforcement, relationships are the foundation of home and work. When these relationships are healthy and require less emergency maintenance individuals enjoy life more - play and work with greater satisfaction. Even the normal, everyday stresses and strains of today's living can take a toll on your relationships. Add to the mix the law enforcement components of Critical Incidents and shift work and you may have a recipe for disaster.

Parenting and relationship skills can only take parents and partners so far. Emphasizing such skills gives the false impression that if we just learn a set of skills and practice them, everything will be okay. A closer look suggests this is not true. Something far more important lies at the essence of parenting and partnership and, once grasped, overrides the need to learn and master a set of skills. Instead of looking to skills from outside ourselves we can learn to look inside ourselves to let wisdom be our guide for how to handle any problem or situation that arises. To do so effectively we need new understanding of the way it all works within us to create how we experience our children and partners. Once this understanding is realized we tend to automatically create healthier relationships with our children and partners, beautiful relationships, solid, respectful relationships that we originally wished for when beginning them. Even the most difficult relationships can be turned around. This workshop will show how this is possible for anyone.

Jack Pransky, Ph.D. is director of the Center for Inside-Out Understanding, based in Vermont. He has authored six books, including Parenting from the Heart, Somebody Should Have Told Us!, Prevention from the Inside-Out and he co-authored Healthy Thinking/ Feeling/ Doing from the Inside-Out middle school curriculum. Pransky has worked in the field of prevention since 1968 and is now a national and international trainer, consultant, counselor and coach. His book, Modello received the Martin Luther King Storyteller's Award, and in 2004 Jack won the Vermont Prevention Pioneers Award.

Instructors: Detective Dominick J. Misino (Retired)

POST: 34 Credits

Cost: $495.00

The St Paul Police Professional Development Institute (PDI) is co-sponsoring with PATC a 4.5-day course in PHASE I & II HOSTAGE NEGOTIATION and CRISIS INTERVENTION.

This course is appropriate for Chiefs, Sheriffs, Street Patrol Officers, First Responders, Jail Corrections Officers, Prison Personnel, Narcotic Officers, Emergency Response Teams and any agency contemplating the structuring of a Crisis Negotiation / Response Team or Crisis Intervention Team. Course content will include blocks of instruction in; Introduction to Crisis Negotiations, Tactical Use of Negotiators, Team Structure, Basics of Negotiating, Communication Skills, Psychology of Negotiations, Case Studies, Dealing with the Media, Suicide Intervention, The Resolution, and The Aftermath. "Role Plays" will be utilized during these segments of the training. The instructor will guide the students through the tense and very stressful job of negotiating with various types of "Hostage Takers and Emotionally Disturbed" people. Students will get a chance to participate as a team member and use the most advanced electronic equipment that is on the market today.

Detective Dominick J. Misino (retired) is a 22 year veteran of the New York City Police Department. During his career with the NYPD he served in the Special Operations Division for 18 years. His background is varied and diverse. He served as the primary hostage negotiator for his last 6 years with the NYPD. The NYPD negotiation team consists of 120 trained negotiators. As primary negotiator he has personally been involved in over 200 hostage / barricade incidents. He has trained law enforcement personnel from over 500 various departments and agencies. He has also trained officers from numerous foreign countries. He developed joint training between these units and established a valuable working relationship. Two of his most note-worthy negotiations were: the negotiated release of 105 people aboard a hi-jacked Lufthansa aircraft. The suspect was convinced to allow the pilot to land at JFK International Airport and then surrender to Dominick on the runway. The second was a bank holdup with 3 hostages, 2 bad guys, and a 12 hour grueling hostage negotiation which ended in the safe release and surrender of all those involved. www.hostagenegotiation.com

Cost: $235.00 each or
$300.00 per couple

The Saint Paul Police Professional Development Institute (PDI) is sponsoring a 2-day course in PTSD - “UNDERSTANDING” AS PREVENTION and INTERVENTION.

This course is intended for individuals involved either presently or in the past with a public-safety or military career, and their significant other(s). Dr. Keith Blevens states that in his thirty-five years of helping people he has realized that there is something everyone has in common. We are all capable of looking at any event in life and insightfully gaining a new perspective and understanding. This capacity is not limited by the significance of the event and there is no situation that cannot be helped by new thinking. We will be looking at thinking in a practical way that helps us go beyond our barriers to insight and common sense. In this course participants can learn:

- It is confusing and detrimental when we let a diagnosis or sensationalism distract us from the usefulness of our common sense.
- There is powerful wisdom and logic in understanding the connection between our thought and feeling. Insight into this connection clears our head and reconnects us to our common sense.
- There is an inspirational quality to common sense that can naturally motivate us in our struggle with PTSD.
- Our common sense can help us to understand and alert us to respect the creative and destructive force of thought and the role it plays in PTSD. This understanding can transform our relationship to thought and in doing so can insightfully help us heal.

Dr. Keith Blevens, Ph.D. is a licensed clinical psychologist in the state of Washington. He has been helping people for over thirty-five years many of whom have suffered from PTSD (Post Traumatic Stress Disorder). He has been the Psychological Services Director of a Veteran's Administration Neuropsychiatric Unit specializing in Vietnam era conflict veterans. He has served as treatment team lead for the Rape Treatment Center at Dade County Hospital in Miami, Florida. He has consistently treated trauma victims and their families throughout his career and has recently returned from the Middle East where he consults with “Hope for Heroism”, an organization founded by and for the benefit of wounded ex-Israeli soldiers.

A “Stress - Less” Approach to Public Safety

Date: June 23-24, 2011

Location St. Paul Police Department
Western District Community Room
389 N. Hamline Avenue
Saint Paul, MN 55104

Time: 0900-1700

Instructor: Keith Blevens, Ph.D.

POST: 14 Credits

Cost: $235.00 each or
$300.00 per couple

The Saint Paul Police Professional Development Institute (PDI) is sponsoring a 2-day course in A “Stress - Less” Approach to Public Safety.

This course is intended for individuals involved either presently or in the past with a public-safety or military career, and their significant other(s). Identification and location are critical in public safety work and they are just as critical in understanding stress. Everybody has perceived stress in their lives. What is stressful to one person is not stressful to another. What is stressful to us one day may not be stressful the next. We have to perceive something as stressful for it to be stressful to us. Therefore, stress does not exist as an outside antagonist. It is perception that defines stress which helps us to understand it as a psychological event not as an event of circumstances or situation. In this course participants can learn:

- We gain clarity when we pinpoint stress as a psychological event rather than as an event of circumstances or situation. It presents us with a different type of intervention than if it was an external problem.
- We can target and intervene on our own behalf when we have properly identified and located stress as perception.
- Understanding the perceptual basis of stress exposes that there is no external “stress monster” that is waiting to get us. When this misunderstanding is exposed it automatically clears our heads of large amounts of troublesome thinking.
- Clear headed people can take optimal advantage of their intelligence and common sense which prepares them to work smarter and safer.

Dr. Keith Blevens, Ph.D. is a licensed clinical psychologist in the state of Washington. He has been helping people for over thirty-five years many of whom have suffered from PTSD (Post Traumatic Stress Disorder). He has been the Psychological Services Director of a Veteran’s Administration Neuropsychiatric Unit specializing in Vietnam era conflict veterans. Homicide Scene Management for Patrol

Date: October 6, 2011

Location: St. Paul Police Department
Western District Community Room
389 N. Hamline Avenue
Saint Paul, MN 55104

Time: 0800-1600

Instructors: Investigator David Newman. (Retired)

POST: 7 Credits

Cost: $125.00

The Saint Paul Police Professional Development Institute (PDI) is sponsoring a 1-day course on HOMICIDE SCENE MANAGEMENT FOR PATROL.

The course objective is to train the patrol officer or first responder how to handle and approach a homicide or violent crime scene prior to the arrival of scene investigators. Many patrol officers lack the training and basic understanding of managing the scene of a homicide and avoiding too much traffic and cross contamination, while at the same time establishing safe boundaries that will encompass all of the physical evidence. Crime scene management begins with the arrival of the first officer on scene and continues on through both scene and homicide investigators. Most important and often overlooked are the responsibilities of patrol. Know what to do before critical errors and possibly the loss of vital evidence takes place. It's always been a simple rule in homicide investigation; how the initial scene is handled by patrol has a profound effect on the entire investigation.

This one day class is designed to benefit those in patrol so they may understand what role they play not only in the initial securing of a homicide scene, but also provides them with a good understanding of physical evidence recognition, preservation and documentation. Because patrol officers cannot often times have days off for training resulting from manpower restrictions, this course has been condensed to 8 hours to make it easier for them to attend. The instructor for this course is Inv. David Newman (Ret.) from the Norfolk Police Department in Virginia.

To register go to: https://www.trainingregistration.org/register.php?id=414&c_id=12. If you have any questions, please call the Saint Paul Police Department Training Unit at (651) 266-5555 or email: pdi@ci.stpaul.mn.us.

Digital Forensic Imaging for Law Enforcement

Date: October 7, 2011

Location St. Paul Police Department Headquarters
4th Floor Classroom
367 Grove Street
Saint Paul, MN 55101

Time: 0800-1600

Instructors: Larry J. Nevin-SPPD (Retired), Master Photographer

POST: 7 Credits

Cost: $135.00

The Saint Paul Police Professional Development Institute (PDI) is sponsoring a 1-day course in DIGITAL FORENSIC IMAGING FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT.

This course is designed for street officers, investigators and prosecuting attorneys, who deal with photographic evidence on a regular basis. The majority of the class will deal with the use of 35 mm digital SLR cameras and lenses. Capturing excellent photographic evidence is a perishable skill that should be updated frequently. Answering questions in court about your photographs and how they were taken is another topic that will be covered in this course. Storage of digital files will also be discussed. Within the course there will be training on point and shoot digital cameras. For the investigator we will work on capturing additional photos during the investigation with less than optimal camera equipment. Each student is required to have with them the department camera that they use, the manual for that camera and the department policies on photographic evidence. There will be practical exercises during this course. The student is encouraged to bring up any problems that they might have had with forensic imaging in the past.

Larry J. Nevin: is a retired St. Paul Police Officer with 29 plus years of service. He is a master level evidence technician and was the Former Director of the SPPD'S Audio Video Services Unit. His photographic experience is not limited to just Police Work. He is the owner of Heritage Prints Studios, a full service photographic and video studio that has been viable for over 30 years.

The Saint Paul Police Professional Development Institute (PDI) is sponsoring a 2-day course in KRAV MAGA DEFENSE TACTICS SYSTEM FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT.

This is a system intended for use by Military, Security and Law Enforcement Special Operations Units. Krav Maga directly translates to “Contact Combat” and is an official self-defense and close-quarter combat system of Israeli Defense Force (IDF) and Israeli security apparatus. Krav Maga has been taught to hundreds of Law-Enforcement agencies and thousands of civilians in United States.

Krav Maga is a modern, reality based method of training. The Krav Maga defensive tactics training is characterized by a logical & progressive approach to learning that results in a highly effective, easy to learn, natural and practical method of hand to hand combat for real life violent encounters.

Michael Rozin is a well known Krav Maga instructor amongst the Law Enforcement community in the Twin Cities. He served as a Sergeant in a specialized infantry unit in the Israeli Defense Forces. During his deployment Michael participated in operations at the West Bank, Syrian and Lebanon border. After his military service he joined the Israeli Airport Authority where he worked as a security agent for Ben-Gurion International Airport in Tel Aviv under the supervision of the Israeli Security Agency, (Shin Bet). Part of Michael’s training at Ben Gurion Airport included advanced Krav Maga training.

Michael Rozin has taught a number of classes to Security, local Law Enforcement and Federal Agencies. Michael is a graduate of the Institute of Counter-Terrorism in the Interdisciplinary Center in Hertzliya, Israel where he attended a Masters Level Executive Counter-Terrorism Studies program. He is fluent in Russian, Bulgarian, Hebrew and English.

The Essence of Effective Parenting

Date: November 7-8, 2011

Location St. Paul Police Department
Western District Community Room
389 N. Hamline Avenue
Saint Paul, MN 55104

Time: 0900-1700

Instructor: Jack Pransky, Ph.D.

POST: 14 Credits

Cost: $ 235.00
$ 300.00 per couple

The Saint Paul Police Professional Development Institute (PDI) is sponsoring a 2-day course in THE ESSENCE OF EFFECTIVE PARENTING.

In law enforcement, relationships are the foundation of home and work. When these relationships are healthy and require less emergency maintenance individuals enjoy life more - play and work with greater satisfaction. Even the normal, everyday stresses and strains of today's living can take a toll on your relationships. Add to the mix the law enforcement components of Critical Incidents and shift work and you may have a recipe for disaster.

Parenting and relationship skills can only take parents and partners so far. Emphasizing such skills gives the false impression that if we just learn a set of skills and practice them, everything will be okay. A closer look suggests this is not true. Something far more important lies at the essence of parenting and partnership and, once grasped, overrides the need to learn and master a set of skills. Instead of looking to skills from outside ourselves we can learn to look inside ourselves to let wisdom be our guide for how to handle any problem or situation that arises. To do so effectively we need new understanding of the way it all works within us to create how we experience our children and partners. Once this understanding is realized we tend to automatically create healthier relationships with our children and partners, beautiful relationships, solid, respectful relationships that we originally wished for when beginning them. Even the most difficult relationships can be turned around. This workshop will show how this is possible for anyone.

Jack Pransky, Ph.D. is director of the Center for Inside-Out Understanding, based in Vermont. He has authored six books, including Parenting from the Heart, Somebody Should Have Told Us!, Prevention from the Inside-Out and he co-authored Healthy Thinking/ Feeling/ Doing from the Inside-Out middle school curriculum. Pransky has worked in the field of prevention since 1968 and is now a national and international trainer, consultant, counselor and coach. His book, Modello received the Martin Luther King Storyteller's Award, and in 2004 Jack won the Vermont Prevention Pioneers Award.

NOTE: Students must bring a lap-top computer for this training.

The Saint Paul Police Professional Development Institute (PDI) is sponsoring a ½ -day course in INVESTIGATING INTERNET RELATED CRIMINAL OFFENSES and USING THE “FIELD SEARCH” SOFTWARE PROGRAM.

The Internet has become a new tool used by offenders to commit many different criminal offenses and created a new “beat” for law enforcement. The Basic Internet Investigations Course is designed to equip investigators with the knowledge to track, locate and prosecute cyber-criminals. This course will provide instruction in understanding the Internet and Internet Protocol addresses, tracing email source, wireless issues, court orders for electronic data and the collection of digital evidence.

“Field Search” is a valuable law enforcement “search” program that will allow officers and investigators to view images, videos and documents stored on computer hard-drives while on scene at search warrants, knock and talks, etc. All students will receive a licensed copy of this software upon completion of the course.

To register, go to the website: <http://www.ci.stpaul.mn.us/forms.asp?fid=41> and fill out registration form. If you have any questions, please call the Saint Paul Police Department Training Unit at (651) 266-5555 or email: pdi@ci.stpaul.mn.us
